

Phrasal Verbs A-B

Fill in each blank by putting the correct verb into the gaps. Remember to use the right tense or verb form where necessary.

- 1 Everyone _____ him _____ when he complained about the conditions at work.
- 2 Profits _____ _____ 60% this year, so we'll be able to pay a dividend.
- 3 Who _____ _____ the question of wage rises in the meeting this morning?
- 4 The two companies were going to merge, but one of them _____ _____ at the last minute.
- 5 It'll cost more once you've _____ the VAT _____.
- 6 The takeover was a complete surprise to me. _____ you _____ it?
- 7 If you want the company to grow, the business will have to _____ _____ into new areas.
- 8 If you _____ your languages _____ then that'll help you get a better job.
- 9 We must get a new photocopier. This one's always _____ _____.
- 10 Sales _____ _____ by nearly 30%, so we'll have to start thinking about reducing the number of staff.
- 11 Well, how do you _____ _____ the fact that there's £20,000 missing?
- 12 The printer _____ _____ ink again. Have you got another cartridge?
- 13 Next week's meeting has been _____ _____ from Tuesday to Monday.
- 14 She's not here. She _____ _____ today. I think she's got a hospital appointment.
- 15 I've _____ all my expenses _____ and you owe me £250.
- 16 The argument lasted for hours because neither of them would _____ _____.
- 17 You'd think he owned the company the way he _____ everyone _____.
- 18 They're _____ _____ a new line of summer clothing next month.
- 19 When you _____ the figures _____ by category, you can see that most of our spending is on R&D.
- 20 The computers _____ _____ again, so we can't get the plane tickets over the internet.
- 21 Whenever you write a new report, remember to _____ it _____ on CD.