

Phrasal Verbs D-F

Fill in each blank by putting the correct verb into the gaps. Remember to use the right tense or verb form where necessary.

- 1 The presentation should only last for two hours, but they want me to _____ it _____ for three.
- 2 The plans we had to relocate the company _____ because we couldn't get planning permission.
- 3 If you decide to buy the company, we can _____ a contract within seven days.
- 4 Sales have _____ ever since we introduced the new packaging. Nobody likes it.
- 5 I think we'll have to terminate his contract because he doesn't _____ the other people in the office.
- 6 The profit margin has been much higher ever since the company _____ its labour intensive production system.
- 7 She started in the company as a secretary. Who would have thought she would _____ as the managing director?
- 8 Well, I'm busy on Monday and Tuesday, but I could _____ you _____ on Wednesday morning at about 11 o'clock.
- 9 We should _____ the staff problems now before they get too serious.
- 10 You have to _____ the fact that things have changed since you opened the company. You need to modernise.
- 11 Please _____ the application form and return it to us as soon as possible.
- 12 The chairman's speech seemed to _____ for ever. I had difficulty staying awake.
- 13 Did you know that the sales manager is being replaced? I've only just _____.
- 14 Our usual receptionist is on maternity leave at the moment, but one of the secretaries is _____ for her.
- 15 The report _____ the introduction of new technology.