

Phrasal Verbs M-P

Fill in each blank by putting the correct verb into the gaps. Remember to use the right tense or verb form where necessary.

- 1 The expansion programme has been _____ until the economy improves.
- 2 Once we _____ the bank loan, we'll be able to invest our profits in the company.
- 3 The negotiations went on and on, but he finally _____ the deal.
- 4 Hello, could you _____ me _____ to the Sales Department, please?
- 5 If they _____ me _____ for promotion again this year I'm going to find a new job.
- 6 We'll be _____ the changes _____ over the next few years so as to minimise disruption to the production process.
- 7 I really must _____ how important this meeting is. The company's future depends on it.
- 8 There's a job going now that the Head of Personnel has retired. Why don't you _____ it?
- 9 What's this figure here in the accounts? I can't _____ it _____.
- 10 Sales are often slow in the summer. Things should _____ around October.
- 11 The new manager _____ her ideas for cutting costs as soon as the meeting opened.
- 12 Can I borrow your office? The roadworks outside my window are _____ me _____ my work.
- 13 We made it completely clear that we wouldn't sell for less than £3m, so the buyer _____ of the deal.
- 14 The new secretary speaks four languages. Apparently she _____ them _____ while travelling around Europe.
- 15 The boss is never going to forget about that report being lost. I suppose I should _____ to having left it in a taxi.
- 16 Can you check through the list and see if I've _____ anything _____?
- 17 At least the sales contract from the Ministry will _____ the orders we lost because of the transport strike.
- 18 Who do you want people to _____ their cheques _____?