

Relative Clauses

Combine the sentences into one single sentence using relative clauses. Use pronouns instead of nouns where it sounds better. There may be more than one possibility.

1 My flat is in an old part of the city. It was built in the 1920s.

---

2 There are lots of bars and restaurants in the neighbourhood. I live in the neighbourhood.

---

3 My neighbour comes from Ecuador. He works on the fruit farms around the city.

---

4 The neighbour makes a lot of noise walking around. His flat is above mine.

---

5 The traffic is also very noisy. It passes my flat.

---

6 The local market sells excellent local produce. It is a two-minute walk from my flat.

---

7 In my study there are doors leading to a balcony. The balcony overlooks the street. You can see a long way in both directions from my balcony.

---

---

8 The price of flats in this area has risen a great deal since 1998. I bought my flat in 1998. This means I could make money if I sold my flat.

---

---

9 The government carried out a census. According to the census there are more people moving into the area. This makes me think that the council should invest more money here.

---

---

10 I once wanted to apply for a property grant, so I rang the council and spoke to a woman. She told me that I should go to the local council offices. I could pick up an application form at the local council offices. I should fill in the application form and return it as soon as possible.

---

---

---